

Step 7

Help Others - Help other addicts the same way that you were.

- (Galatians 6:1) says “Brothers and sisters, if someone is caught in a sin, you who live by the Spirit should restore that person gently. But watch yourselves, or you also may be tempted”

Having had a spiritual experience as the result of these steps, we try to carry this message to others, and practice these steps and all of our affairs.

Think about it

Freely you have received freely give. Matthew 10:8

What does it mean to give?

Give first

By placing God first in your life, you will realize that everything you have is a gift from him. You realize that your recovery is not dependent on material things. It is built upon your faith and your desire to follow Jesus Christ's direction.

He did not even keep back his own son, but offered him for us all! He gave us his son - Will he not also freely give us all things? Romans 8:32

You cannot serve two masters. God and money. For you will hate one and love the other, or else the other way around. Matthew 6:24

I become we

The road to recovery is not meant to be traveled alone

Love the Lord your God with all of your heart and with all of your soul and with all of your mind. This is the first and greatest commandment. And the second is like it. Love your neighbor as yourself. Matthew 22:37-39

Two are better off than one, because together they can work more effectively. If one of them falls down, the other can help him up, but if someone is alone... there is no help to him... two people can resist an attack that would defeat one person alone. Ecclesiastes 4:9-12

Victory shared

God never wastes a hurt! Step 7 gives us the opportunity to share our experiences and victories. This is how it was for me... This is what happened to me... This is how I gain strength... There IS hope for you.

Let us give thanks to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the merciful Father, the God from whom all help comes! He helps us in all our troubles, so that we are able to help those who have all kinds of troubles, using the same help that we ourselves have received from God.
Second Corinthians 1:3

Example of your actions

James 122. It says we are to be doers of the word. But to be of help to another, we are to carry the message in all our affairs.

You have all heard the term Sunday Christians. Let us not become just Thursday night. Overcomer buffs.

My children, our love should not be just words and talk, it must be true love, which shows itself in action 1st. John 3:18

The Lord spreads his message through the 7 Christ-centered steps. We are the instruments for delivering the good news. The way we live will confirm to others the sincerity of our commitment to the Lord, to the overcomer program, and to them!

No one likes a lamp and then covers it with a wash tub or shoves it under the bed. No, you set it up on a lamp stand so those who enter the room can see their way... We are not hiding things, we are bringing everything out into the open. So be careful that you do not become misers... generosity begets generosity. Stinginess impoverishes, Luke 8:16-18

Write about it

What does Matthew 10:8 freely you have received freely? Give the meaning to you?

How has your attempt to put God first in your life? Changed your understanding of the word give?

Ecclesiastes 4:9 tells us that two are better than one. List specific instances in your own recovery that you have seen this verse in action.

What are some of your recent victories that you could share with a newcomer?

In James 122 we are told to be doers of the Word. How can you be a doer of the word Among family and friends?

In your overcomer group?

In your church?

On your job?

In your community?
